JACKIE and ME

OCTOBER 10 - NOVEMBER 10, 2013

A powerful play by Steven Dietz, based on Dan Gutman's popular book. Young Joey Stoshack has the unique power to travel through time by holding onto a baseball card. When assigned to write a paper about Jackie Robinson, he heads back to 1947 and meets the legend in person. Joey witnesses Jackie's determination and dedication during the turbulent time of segregation. The journey forever changes Joey's definition of courage. (407) 896-7365 / OrlandoRep.org

A Magic Tree House Adventure follows beloved Magic Tree House characters, Jack and Annie, on the most haunted night of the year - the eve of All Saints Day - as they search for a young Louis Armstrong. On a mission to inspire young artists to share their talents with the world, can the duo find Louis and set him on the path to becoming the King of Jazz? Complete with a live jazz band, this new musical will transport audiences back to 1915 New Orleans where the streets are filled with music and the night is filled with ghosts! MAGIC TREE HOUSE: A NIGHT IN NEW ORLEANS

ALICE LOST IN WONDERLAND

OCT 18th - NOV 3rd

Alice Lost in Wonderland marks the ninth production in partnership with Beth Marshall Presents and this adaptation's world premiere at the Garden Theatre. In a world of madness nothing is as it seems and we can't go back to yesterday because we were different people then. "But I don't want to go among mad people," said Alice. "Oh you can't help that," said the cat. "We're all mad here, I'm mad. You're mad." "How do you know I'm mad?" asked Alice. "You must be," said the cat, "or you wouldn't have come." Tickets: $21-25.
