2013 Orange County Hurricane Expo Central Florida Fairgrounds

Orange County encourages residents to "Keep Calm and Prepare" this hurricane season, which begins June 1, by taking steps to be ready and reduce their risk of damage. Orange County can help residents prepare at the 2013 Hurricane Expo. This free one-day event will offer preparedness information, live demonstrations, and hands-on training at the Central Florida Fairgrounds. Free preparedness items like weather radios and first aid kits will be distributed while supplies last. Participants will also learn how to "track" storms, pack a disaster kit, administer first aid, perform compression only CPR, and prepare an emergency plan for their pets. Event is free and open to the public! (407) 836-9140 / OCFL.net

Night Hike at the Zoo Central Florida Zoo & Botanical Gardens

Experience the sights and sounds of the Central Florida Zoo at night - 7 pm to 11 pm - during this exciting nocturnal adventure! The evening will begin in the Discovery Center with up-close animal encounters. Fascinating night life will then come to light as we venture into the Zoo for a guided flashlight tour and explore the Zoo after dark. This is a great program for families, but because it is a late night program, children must be five years or older to attend. Reservations and payment required by May 31. Harry P. Leu Gardens Father's Day 1920 North Forest Avenue

Free admission for Dads all day long, 9 am - 5 pm. Take your Dad on a stroll through this beautiful 50-acre botanical oasis, seeing from amazing tropical plants to our formal rose garden to our own veggie garden; there is so much to see! Have a seat at the overlook taking in the wild life of Lake Rowena. Don't forget to visit the Leu House Museum, a restored 1880's home listed on the National Register of Historic Places, where you can hear the stories of the families who once lived here. Your Dad may even be inspired to plant a garden or two after visiting the Idea Gardens, 10 residentially scaled gardens that you can replicate at home. We hope you enjoy your day with your Dad.
